THE REAL HOUSEWIVES ~ OHIO AMISH COUNTRY

Sunday, April 23- Wednesday, April 26, 2017

Day 1: April 23

Forget about those so called "reality" TV shows! Learn how the Amish run successful home based businesses without modern technology! Enjoy Amish meals in Amish homes, cooking demos, house tours, make and take items, visits to Amish farms, furniture companies, and craft shops. Upon arrival you will check into the Comfort Inn and Suites. This property is located in the heart of Amish Country.

Day 2: April 24

This morning a local guide will meet you before sharing the history, highlights and hospitality of the World's Largest Amish Community. What better way to introduce guests to the history behind Amish than at the Behalt Heritage Center. This is a different kind of attraction, a 10 foot by 265 foot circular mural, called Behalt. A unique educational experience awaits you at the Amish & Mennonite Heritage Center. Continue to Walnut Creek Brooms, an Amish broom maker that is found by mere chance or by word of mouth from the locals. Watch a demonstration by the owner and learn about the hours it takes to make the many sizes of brooms and their passion for creating durable high-quality products one at a time. Next, you will arrive at Shy Cellars for a cooking demonstration and lunch. This is a Farm-to-Table and Field-to-Fork experience. Everything is fresh, no prepared foods, no additives...imagine how you will feel knowing that you can pronounce every ingredient in the dishes you are watching being prepared. Depart for Warther Carvings and Mrs. Warther's button house and knife shop. Earnest "Mooney" Warther is best known for his ivory and ebony carvings of steam engines which were appraised by the Smithsonian as "Priceless Works of Art". On this guided tour, guests will see these carvings created out of wood, ivory and pearl - from entire trains to a hand carved steal mill. Visit Mrs. Warther's Swiss Garden and Button house, the original Family Home, and one of the areas finest gift shops, which is the exclusive home of Warther's Cutlery. You will have time to visit some of the shops that line the street of Berlin. (B, D)

Day 3: April 25

Depart the hotel this morning with a local guide and head to Hershberger Baskets. Here you will meet Mattie Hershberger the head of an Amish Family and owner. Watch her make her beautiful hand woven baskets. This is the most strict group of Amish. Next is P. Graham Dunn Woodworking, Laser Art and Factory Tour. Located on a family farm, this bustling factory is tucked in the heart of the countryside. You will see that things are done differently at P. Graham Dunn. Peter designs all of the wood creations, one unique idea at a time. Guests will learn about the business and watch workers through windows. Enjoy the finished products on display in the showrooms. You will be able to select one the of the products to have personalized with their own laser engraved message, while you wait in the gallery. Over 3,000 feet of gallery offers charming wood gifts, prints, music boxes, home décor, furniture and custom designs. Proceed to Lehman's Hardware for shopping and lunch on your own in their Café. Shop and Reminisce your way through thousands of products, while browsing Jay Lehman's antique collection located throughout the store. Make your own muffin candles at Light for my Path Candles.

Browse candles, gift items and consignments. Sample some of Lydia's most popular confections at Troyers' Homemade Candies. Here you will have an opportunity to make your own Buckeye candies to take. Tonight you will visit Katie Shrock Amish home for an Amish Wedding Feast. Experience an Amish Wedding Feast where the room will be set just like a wedding has just taken place. You may be selected from our group to sit at the main table. One couple will be the bride and groom, the other two couples will be the witness couples. (B, D)

Day 4: April 26

This morning you will check out of the hotel before making a quick visit to Hershberger Bakery. Sample the best baked goods at an Amish bakery featuring their famous fry pies, stuffed cookies, cream sticks, breads, and more! Following the bakery visit, you will depart for home with a much better understanding of a simpler life! Take home some homemade treats! Return home will be early evening. (B)

QUEBEC CITY & TROIS-RIVIERES

Tuesday, May 23 – Friday, May 26, 2017

Day 1: May 23

Quebec City is among North America's most unique and appealing destinations. Experience its four centuries of French heritage, irresistible "walled city" charm, as well as its scenic and historic core with plenty of variety to see and do. Upon arrival you will check into the Palace Royal Hotel, located outside the St. John Gate and a true gem in the heart of downtown Quebec. (D)

Day 2: May 24

This morning you will enjoy a 3-hour comprehensive Quebec City tour. Your tour will include The Plains of Abraham, Cape Diamond, The Joan of Arc Garden, Grand-Allee, Parliament, Place d'Armes, Old Quebec, Chateau Frontenac, Place Royal and much more! (B, D)

Day 3: May 25

Today you will visit Montmorency Falls. These falls, the first to be harnessed for hydro-electric power, are 1 1/2 times taller than the Niagara Falls. You'll have a fantastic view from the foot bridge that crosses the top of the falls as well as the lookouts alongside. Depart for Cap-de-la-Madeleine. Travel scenic Highway 138, part of Chemin Royal which was first established in the late 1600's to connect Quebec City, Trois-Rivieres and Montreal. Visit Notre-Dame du Cap Sanctuary on your own. The construction of the Basilica began in 1955 and it was inaugurated in 1964. Among the Basilica's features you will see remarkable stained glass windows and a Casavant organ, serviced by 5,425 pipes. The casework of this organ is in the shape of a maple leaf covering the back wall of the Basilica. Enjoy time at your leisure for lunch in Trois-Rivieres where you will find many restaurants to choose from. Enjoy a guided visit of the Old Prison of Trois Rivieres which was in operation from 1822 to 1986. The preservation of the Old Prison made it possible to safeguard many of its original architectural features. The building, once the longest operating detention centre in Canada, is now part of the national prison heritage. Tonight you will overnight at the Hotel des Gouverneurs Trois-Rivieres. (B, D)

EMBRACE THE BEAUTY OF CAPE COD & MARTHA'S VINEYARD LADIES YOU'LL LOVE IT!

Tuesday, June 6 – Friday, June 9, 2017

Day 1: June 12

Welcome to the sandy shores of Cape Cod and the surrounding area. On this tour, you'll visit an island, a winery, enjoy a luncheon cruise on Cape Cod Bay and visit a very unique culinary museum in Providence, Rhode Island. Come, enjoy and have some fun! Accommodations for the next four nights will be at the Cape Codder Resort in Hyannis. (D)

Day 2: June 13

A local guide will meet you at the hotel this morning before proceeding to the Hy-Line Docks for Martha's Vineyard. Upon arrival you will board a local bus for a sightseeing tour. You will learn about the history and lifestyles of the islanders as you pass through Vineyard Heaven. There will be free time for lunch and shopping in the historic whaling town of Edgartown. Complete your day on the island in Oak Bluffs. You may choose to stroll through “Cottage City” with its brightly painted cottages and decorative “gingerbread” trim. Depart the island on the mid-afternoon ferry and the evening will be free to enjoy as you wish. (B)

Day 3: June 14

Depart Hyannis and cross over the Cape Cod Canal and continue to the Capital of the State of Rhode Island, Providence. Meet your local guide who will share interesting facts, trivia and secrets about the people and places that have shaped this capital city. Next you will enjoy a visit to the Culinary Art Museum at Johnson & Wales. This premier museum is devoted to the preservation of the history of the culinary and hospitality industry. Your group will explore five centuries of culinary treasures, including a diner museum, stove museum, pantheon of chefs, kitchen gadgets, presidential menu's, fine china, appliances and much more. Historic Federal Hill is the “Heartbeat of Providence” and begins at Atwells Avenue, the great street that flows under the arch, one of the most recognizable landmarks in Providence. The La Pigna (or The Pine Cone) sculpture hanging from its centre - a traditional Italian symbol of welcome, abundance, and quality. This is the place to take a stroll and visit the Italian Food Emporiums, Bakeries, Boutiques and Art Galleries. Depart and travel to Westport, Massachusetts. Visit the Westport Rivers Winery and enjoy a tour and tasting. The Russell family dreamed of returning to the family's tradition of raising grapes and making champagne. In 1982, after searching the globe for the perfect place to farm flavourful sparkling wine, they chose Westport, MA. The evening will be free again this evening to enjoy as you wish. (B, L)

Day 4: June 15

A local guide will meet you at the hotel again this morning before conducting a tour of Hyannis including the John F. Kennedy Memorial, the Korean War Memorial, Hyannisport and a view of the St. Francis Xavier Church, the summer parish of the Kennedy family. A lobster lunch is included aboard the S.S. Lobster Roll. Glide through the calm waters of Sesuit Harbor and into the serene beauty of Cape Cod Bay with its picturesque coastline. Relax and enjoy spectacular views from the deck. A stop will be made in Brewster at Sydenstricker Gallery, makers of collectible fine quality kiln fired glassware. Later, you will travel to the “south side” of the Cape to the seaside village of Chatham. You will view the Chatham Light, which has been a lifesaving beacon for sailors throughout the Cape's history. Chatham's location at the Cape's “elbow” make it very vulnerable to winter storms and your guide will point out the Chatham Break and the dramatic changes to the shoreline that have occurred, thanks to Mother Nature. (B, L, D)

READING, PENNSYLVANIA

Thursday, August 3 – Sunday, August 6, 2017

Day 1: August 3

Picture yourself in Greater Reading, where country charm sits crazy-close to city arts, entertainment, and shopping. Quaint Main Streets lined with antiques and artisan-crafts shops. Minutes away, back-country roads offer dazzling natural beauty and outdoor adventure. All this conveniently located and steeped in a vibrant local culture, history and heritage. Accommodations this evening will be at the Holiday Inn Express & Suites located just two blocks from the Vanity Fair Outlets in Wyomissing, Pennsylvania. (D)

Day 2: August 4

The Berks County Heritage Center has been developed as a historical interpretive complex focusing on important eras of transportation history. Explore the Gruber Wagon Works, a National Historic Landmark built in 1882. See over 19,000 tools and artifacts that were used in the production of these sturdy wagons. Absorb the history of the Union and Schuylkill Canals in the C. Howard Hiester Canal Center, or take a leisurely stroll along the original towpath. Walk across Wertz's Red Bridge, Pennsylvania's longest single-span covered bridge. Next you will visit the Mid Atlantic Air Museum. This museum was organized to ensure the professional stewardship of a collection that reflects the history of aviation and to enhance the public's appreciation and understanding of that history. The remainder of the day will be free to enjoy as you wish. You may decide to shop the bargains at the local outlets, check out the unique finds on the Main Street, be pampered at a local spa, pick from an assortment of local eateries or simply relax at the hotel. (B)

Day 3: August 5

Don't forget your camera! Today you will visit The Pagoda. Located atop Mt. Penn, the city-owned Pagoda has been cared for by the people of Reading for over 100 years. This historic icon serves as an observatory with a breathtaking view of the city and surrounding areas, attracting visitors from around the world. The Daniel Boone Homestead is a historical site that tells the story of Daniel Boone's youth in Oley Valley and illuminates the daily lives of the region's 18th-century settlers through the eyes of the Boone Maudgridge and DeTurk families who occupied the site. Discover this diverse region that impacted Daniel Boone's life and Pennsylvania's history. Continue to Hopewell Furnace National Historic Site where history spans for over two centuries. You will learn about industrial development, technology, community, craftsmanship, and natural resources that changed America. Next you will visit Ridgewood Winery. When the Lewis family and later the Dick family, built Ridgewood Farm in 1725 and 1811, they were probably not expecting that one day the building would be a Nationally Registered Historic Site, nearly 300 years later. Enjoy a visit to the farmstead and sample some award-winning wines. (B, D)

UNIQUE CAPE COD & NANTUCKET ISLAND

Monday, September 4 – Friday, September 8, 2017

Day 1: September 4

Extending some 70 miles into the sea, Cape Cod is home to both natural beauty and quaint colonial villages. You can walk pristine beaches, revel in the arts and culture, and reclaim childhood memories of seashells, sandcastles, and saltwater taffy. Accommodations for the next four nights will be at the Blue Rock Resort. This is a Cape Cod resort, tucked away in South Yarmouth, overlooking colourful gardens and the scenic greens of Blue Rock Golf Course. (D)

Day 2: September 5

A local guide will meet you before conducting a full day of touring. You will travel down historic Route 6A, the Old King's Highway, a scenic byway winding through centuries of Cape Cod history. It winds past hundreds of historic structures which characterize its early development. View the Eastham Windmill, a Cape Cod Lighthouse and stop at the Cape Cod National Seashore Center. Sand dunes and the ocean surround you as you approach "Lands End" – Provincetown. You are now at the extreme tip of Cape Cod. Take some time to enjoy the wonderful variety of restaurants, shops, and galleries that make this artists/fishermen village so unique. Board an excursion vessel for an amazing experience of whale watching. You will travel into the natural habitat of a diverse marine environment including birds that migrate here from all over the Atlantic, and fish which use these shallow waters to feed. Try to spot Humpback, Minke, and Fin Whales going about their daily business. An onboard naturalist will introduce you to everything you see and will answer any of your questions about the whales, birds, fish and lighthouses. OR For anyone not wishing to go on a whale watch you can enjoy a dune tour. Ride along the shoreline of the protected lands of the Cape Cod National Seashore. Your guide will point out the "dune shacks" where famous artists and writers became inspired to create their art. (B, D)

Day 3: September 6

This morning you will head to the Hy-Line Docks where you will board the ferry to the stunning island of Nantucket. # QUEBEC CITY & CHARLEVOIX

Tuesday, October 3 – Friday, October 6, 2017

Day 1: October 3

Quebec City invites you to come and experience its four centuries of French heritage, irresistible “walled city” charm, as well as its scenic and historic core with plenty of variety to see and do. Discover its rich culture and heritage along its cobblestone streets. Quebec City is among North America’s most unique and appealing destinations. Upon arrival you will check into the Hotel Voyageur, located just a few steps from Le Chateau Frontenac and Old-Quebec. This hotel will let you fully enjoy the tranquility of the city’s outskirts. (D)

Day 2: October 4

This morning you will meet a local guide for a full day of touring. A photo stop will be made entering Baie-Saint-Paul so don’t forget your camera! Observe the production of cheddar cheese and some of the dairy’s delectable products at Laiterie Charlevoix. Founded in 1948, la Laiterie Charlevoix is operated by the fourth generation of the Labbe family. This afternoon you will enjoy a whale watching cruise. Whales feed at the confluence of the Saguenay and St. Lawrence Rivers. You may see Minke, Blue, Finback and Beluga whales, as well as seals and a vast array of other wildlife. Tonight you will overnight at Les Pavillons Le Petit Manoir (River View). (B, L, D)

Day 3: October 5

Today you will enjoy another full day of touring. Visit the Moulin Seigneurial des Eboulements. With its original equipment and seigniorial manor just next door, it’s one of the last authentic examples of mills of this type in Quebec. Visitors see the mill’s gears and its wheel in action as the miller grinds the grain. Wheat and buckwheat flour are sold on site. Stroll along the narrow streets of Baie-St -Paul, lined with quaint boutiques, art galleries, cider shop, chocolate shops, and wood carvers. You will find locally produced wool, clothing, kitchenware, home decorating, and lots of cafes and restaurants within walking distance. The main street consists of beautifully converted traditional Quebec houses and The River Gouffre runs through the village. Continue to Domaine de la Vallee du Bras where tomato wine is made. Omerto is made from a rich blend of heirloom tomatoes. Its surprisingly clear colour and delectable taste will enchant you on this short tour and tasting. Next you will enjoy a 2-hour Quebec City tour. This will include The Plains of Abraham, Cape Diamond, The Joan of Arc Garden, Grande-Allee, Parliament, Place d’Armes, Old Quebec, Chateau Frontenac, Place Royal and much more! Accommodations tonight will be at the Palace Royal Hotel, located just outside the St. John Gate and a true gem of downtown Quebec. (B, D)

Day 4: October 6

Quebec City is one of the most beautiful cities in Canada and this morning you’ll have time to explore the lovely streets, squares, boutiques and bistros on your own. Strolling along the winding streets, you feel as if you’ve gone back in time as you pass by homes built over 300 years ago. Depart early afternoon to begin your journey home. (B)

“HORSEPOWER” ~ LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY

Sunday, November 12 – Saturday, November 18, 2017

Day 1: November 12

Louisville, Kentucky is renowned for horse racing and its rich history of the Thoroughbred. Today's travel will see you to the Holiday Inn Express located in Ashland, Ohio where you will be accommodated this evening.

Day 2: November 13

Check out of the hotel this morning to continue your journey to Louisville, Kentucky. Upon arrival you will tour an American Saddlebred Horse Farm. Learn all about show horses, take a walk through the barn, and talk with a trainer. Accommodations for the next four nights will be at the Drury Inn & Suites East. This hotel is located just 20 minutes from downtown Louisville and The Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs. (B)

Day 3: November 14

Today you will visit the Kentucky Horse Park, a showcase of museums, galleries, theatres, and working farm exhibits, dedicated to man's relationship with the horse. Watch the harness maker and farrier at work, and visit the grave of the legendary “Man of War”. More than 50 breeds of horses graze upon its lush pastures. Your tour includes a visit to the museum and a movie presentation. Next you will tour Old Friends, a retirement and rescue facility for pensioned Thoroughbreds. Over time Old Friends has both mares (including Bonnie's Poker, the dam 1997 Derby winner Silver Charm), geldings (including Sea Biscuit star Popcorn Delites) and stallions. This attraction is a favourite by most! Enjoy a relaxing ride aboard Shaker Village's riverboat, the “Dixie Belle”. This one hour narrated cruise takes you through high limestone cliffs and untouched natural beauty. Learn the historical importance of the river to the Shakers and pass under High Bridge, an engineering marvel built in 1877. The evening will be free to enjoy as you wish. (B, D)

Day 4: November 15

Start your day by visiting the Kentucky Derby Museum, located right at Churchill Downs. Experience the fast paced “Run for the Roses”, while viewing a 360-degree multi-image, audio-visual presentation. Take a tour of Churchill Downs and practice your betting at today's race! Continue north of Churchill Downs to Old Louisville. This is a historic district where you can see gorgeous examples of Victorian-era homes. (B, D)
